

BEDARRA

The Bedarra is designed to make best use of natural ventilation and light to provide comfortable living with minimal energy use.

Its spacious, free flowing design makes this an ideal home for the larger family, with almost 270m² of living space providing five bedrooms, study, media room and huge storage.

From the moment you enter past the indoor atrium and water feature you will be impressed by the tranquility and space which seems even larger because of the raised ceilings and open design combining indoor and outdoor living and entertainment areas.

The main bedroom is well situated to give a peaceful retreat while still within easy reach of living and childrens' areas.

The double garage has direct access to the home via the formal entry.
