

The Hedley is a multi-level four-bedroom home is more than just somewhere to live as it is designed for the tropical lifestyle, providing seamless living between the spacious split level / dining area and the large undercover patio, alfresco / bbq area and pool.

Inside, you have a dedicated study and, when you want a break, retire to the media room to watch your big-screen movies. The master bedroom is equally well equipped, with its ensuite and generous walk-in wardrobe. All other bedrooms have built-in wardrobes.

Another notable feature of the Hedley is security, with a two-car garage and 53m² shed under the main roof, each with its own entrance. These could easily be set up as a shed/garage .
